2024 Junior Fair Royalty Guidelines

- Any 4-H'er or FFA member who is 16 before January 1, 2024 is eligible to apply.
- Application should be completed and returned to the Harrison Extension Office no later than June 1st. Interviews will be scheduled for Tuesday, June 4th, 2023 at the Harrison County Fairgrounds.
- Junior Fair Royalty is expected to participate in Junior Fair activities throughout the week and must attend the Junior Fair Sale.
- Junior Fair Royalty is expected to be dressed in crown and sash when acting in the capacity of Harrison County Junior Royalty.
- Junior Fair Royalty must dress in an appropriate and neat manner as you are representing ALL Junior Fair organizations and their members. All clothing choices should lean towards conservative fashion (no midriffs, cleavage, cutoffs, or undergarments are to be visible). Acceptable sweatshirts or t-shirts will be representative of your Junior Fair Organization, FFA Chapter and/or 4-H club. No article of clothing should hold a political agenda or convey political meaning. Royals will be asked to change clothing if deemed necessary.
- Junior Fair Royalty must be willing to be interviewed; talk about the events and activities of the fair; explain the benefits of youth involvement in the Harrison County Junior Fair and various youth organizations affiliated with Junior Fair (4-H, FFA, etc.)
- The Junior Fair Queen will be expected to participate in the Ohio Fair Manager's 2024 Queen Contest, and is encouraged to participate in multi-county agricultural events.
- For all the hard-work, commitment, and compliance to the expectations above, the King and Queen will be awarded $100. Any breaking of written agreement will result in loss of award money and title.

I have read the expectations listed above and agree to fulfill them if selected as Junior Fair Royalty.
